

CONSENT REVISION WORKSHEET

Complete the following table by identifying the cases, stating whether a defence of consent was available or not and the reason why:

☐	✓ x	Reason
1. In _____ two men decided to settle an argument by a fight.
2. _____ involved a group of sado-masochistic homosexuals.
3. In _____ a husband branded his initials on his wife's buttocks.
4. In _____, the defendant placed a plastic bag over the head of his lover, during sexual activity, and tightened it at the neck, causing her eyes to bulge out. A few weeks later he poured lighter fluid on her breasts and set light to it, causing a burn 6cm by 4cm.

5. In _____, the defendant rugby player punched an opponent in the face, fracturing his jaw, in an off-the-ball incident.
6. In _____, two boys were tossed in the air and suffered GBH. The defendants denied any intention to cause any serious harm although they foresaw the risk of bruising. They regarded it as a joke, shared by the victims.
7. In _____, a group of RAF officers had tried to ignite the fire-resistant suits of two fellow officers. When one of the group was leaving, the others set fire to his suit causing serious burns.
8. In _____, the defendant had asked several women to take part in what he said was a breast cancer survey to enable him to prepare a database software package for sale to doctors. The three victims agreed to the defendant showing them how to examine their own breasts.
